

EVERYTHING DEMOCRATIC

A Handsome Majority for the Whole Ticket.

At the general election Tuesday the Democratic ticket of Lafayette county was elected by majorities ranging from 350 to 900. Even the Lexington township officers, with the exception of constable, were elected by big majorities. The officers chosen are as follows:

Representative, N. M. Houx.
Presiding Judge County Court, Zach W. Wright.
Judge County Court Western District, Dan G. Wade.
Judge County Court Eastern District, Julius Vogt, Jr.
Judge Probate Court, S. N. Wilson.
Clerk Circuit Court, Wm. T. Tutt.
Clerk County Court, George W. Bates.
County Collector, C. L. Wilson.
Recorder of Deeds, W. T. Wernag.
Prosecuting Attorney, William Aull, Jr.
Justice of the Peace, Clyde C. Wright, W. P. Cole, John Hedge.

Owen Owen, candidate for constable of Lexington Township on the Republican ticket was elected over Joe N. Mitchell, candidate on the Democratic ticket.

Congressman C. W. Hamlin carried the county over his Republican opponent, A. W. Lovan, by approximately 800 majority. Mr. Hamlin's vote is 3508; Mr. Lovan's 2702.

The state Democratic ticket, W. J. Stone, Senator; James T. Blair, Supreme Court Judge, and Howard A. Gass, State Superintendent of Public Schools, were elected. Stone's majority will be around sixty thousand votes.

The blighting effect of the Kansas City Star's support assured the defeat of the Moose ticket in Kansas City. The whole Democratic ticket was elected.

The incomplete returns indicate that all fifteen amendments have been defeated.

Causes of the War Given in a Nutshell.

1. Austria issued an ultimatum to Serbia.
2. That ultimatum, because of its insulting, impossible provisions, was practically a declaration of war.
3. That ultimatum was sent with the consent and approval of the German Government.
4. That ultimatum was regarded by Russia and Serbia, as tantamount to a declaration of war, and both commenced to mobilize at once.

Brushing aside the clouds of vituperation, assertion, white papers, &c., the above four facts stand out as clear as crystal in the mind of the average American.—Ex.

Central College.

The second Faculty Concert of the season, by Conservatory talent, was given Monday evening in Murrell Auditorium. A beautiful night and high esteem for the participants brought together a large audience interested in a program presented by Miss Hinesley, Pianist, Miss Reagan, Soprano, and Miss Todhunter, Violinist.

The piano numbers included classical and modern selections arranged in pleasing contrast. Miss Hinesley possesses a tone of singing quality imbued with warmth and feeling. And, with adequate technique and musical intelligence, she conveys the content of a composition with interpretative power. The improvisation by MacDowell displayed a fine appreciation of the lyrical and poetic quality. Miss Hinesley closed the program with a brilliant rendition of Liszt's Twelfth Rhapsodie; in which the sudden changes from one mood to another were given with masculine virility and feminine charm.

Miss Reagan was the vocalist for the occasion and her singing was given the enthusiastic approval of the audience. Her mezzo-soprano voice of beautiful quality and good range has consistently broadened and improved from year to year, till she is recognized as a singer of sterling worth and one of the chief musical assets of both college and town. Her numbers for last evening were well chosen and arranged, and displayed her versatility of expression. The happy rendition of The Gypsy Trail demanded a repetition of that number.

Miss Todhunter, the highly esteemed and popular violin instructor, was announced for only one number, choosing a selection from the de Beriot Concerto in A minor. But the Rondo was given with such precision, abundance of spirit, and musical understanding that she carried the entire audience away with delight. Insisting upon an encore Miss Todhunter played with exquisite gracefulness a Menuet by Beethoven.

The entire program follows:

Fantasia, C minor - Bach
Ah! Rendimi (Mitrane) - Rossi
Nachtstuck, F major - Schumann
Scherzo, E minor - Mendelssohn
Improvisation - MacDowell
Valse, A flat - Arensky
Rondo—Concerto, A minor - de Beriot
Across the Hills - Rummel
La Danza - Chadwick
When the Roses Bloom - Reichardt
The Gypsy Trail - Galloway
Twelfth Rhapsodie - Liszt
Mrs. A. W. Allen, Accompanist.

The Christmas Thought.

Ideas on Christmas giving are rapidly changing among the sensible. Those who think as they give are looking for a year-round service as the important thing. In a week of shopping, with all its strain, you will not find a better gift than a year's subscription to The Youth's Companion. It offers its service, its clean entertainment, its fine suggestiveness week after week; and the end of the year, which finds many a gift in the attic, dust-covered and forgotten, brings The Companion again, with all the charm of last Christmas-tide.

No American monthly at any price offers the same amount of reading, and none can offer better quality. Less than four cents a week provides this best of Christmas gifts—$2.00 a year. If you subscribe now, all the remaining issues of the year will be sent free, and The Companion Home Calendar. A copy of the Calendar is also sent to those who make a gift subscription. Send for sample copies, and the Forecast for 1915.

Wentworth Downs Haskell.

From W. M. A. Trumpeter.
Wentworth continued his winning streak Saturday by defeating the strong and heavy Haskell team to the score of fourteen to nine. Both elevens were evenly matched and the result was certain until the fourth quarter ended. Our team has not yet been defeated and has three wins and two ties to its credit. Undoubtedly we should have piled up a larger count on the "Red Men" had it not been for injuries. Hottel, the star fullback, was in the game for a while, but he was just off of crutches and consequently was very weak. Werner played, but he was also badly crippled. Ewing played his usual game at quarter while Hottel was a substantial ground-gainer. Clore and Winburn starred in the line but they had nothing on Rogers who broke through every time. This trio, with Hartzell, time and again would break through the Indian defense and nail a Haskell back before he had the ball.

Captain Hartzell kicked off to Haskell, who lost the pigskin on downs. We drew the first blood when Winburn blocked a punt and Chambers recovered the ball and went racing over the goal line for a touchdown. Erwin kicked a pretty goal. Hartzell won the handsome belt awarded by the McDaniel & Wiley Clothing Company for the first covered fumble. By forward passes from Clore to Fullbright and several end runs with off tackle smashes we advanced to their nine yard line. Then the heavy and powerful Indian defense took a new brace and held us for downs. Our fellows outgeneralized and out played them in almost every minute of play during this period was not much of a resistance to our attack while they were unable to make any impression on our stubborn line.

Haskell at the beginning of the second half kicked off to Erwin. After being held for downs Ewing punted and Haskell after several successive gains carried the oval over but failed in kicking goal. Ewing recovered a fumble and Chambers was sent around left end for 35 yards. The ball then rested on our opponents 7 yard line. Jeff then bored his way through for the final touchdown and Erwin was again successful in kicking goal. Then by steady gains Haskell lugged the ball to our 20 yard line. Then they sent a beautiful low kick from placement through the uprights. The fourth quarter ended with both teams struggling desperately but neither being able to gain ground.

The Haskell played a much more strenuous game in the last half while our boys fell down completely. While this year's standards were not upheld in this game it was no doubt due to the condition the team was in after being buffeted by the Vets last week.
